ERASMUS+ INCOMING STAFF MOBILITY CALL

+ DEFINITIONS

Staff Mobility

Staff mobility can be carried out from any institution from a third country not associated to the programme that is given in the call to the institution in a EU member state or third country associated to the programme. To ensure high-quality mobility activities with maximum impact, the mobility activity has to be related to the staff's professional development and to address their learning and personal development needs.

Staff Mobility for Teaching (STA)

- STA is a teaching period abroad at a partner higher education institution. The teaching period abroad enables any teaching staff at a higher education institution to teach at a partner higher education institution abroad.
- It is obligatory to have an Erasmus+ Inter-Institutional Agreement (IIA) between our University and the Higher Education Institution where the mobility will be carried out.
- Within the scope of mobility, at least 8 hours of lessons should be given, and the teaching plan should be arranged according to at least 5 working days.
- Only academic staff working in the fields specified in the agreement can benefit from the mobility. Regardless of the field of work of the applicant, the unit in which the staff is located is taken as the basis.
- Personnel who meet the application requirements can benefit from the activity without grant.

Staff Mobility for Training (STT)

- STT is a training period abroad at a partner higher education institution. The training period abroad enables any staff at a higher education institution to take part in a training activity abroad that is relevant to their day-to-day work at the higher education institution. It may take the form of training events or job shadowing.
- The Training Schedule must be tailored to at least 5 working days.
- Personnel who meet the application requirements can benefit from the activity without grant.
